APPOINTMENT

Bertrand Chevallier has been appointed Head of Payments effective 4 January 2016. He will report to Michel Mathieu, Deputy Chief Executive Officer responsible for Operations and Processing and for the Retail Bank Subsidiaries. Bertrand Chevallier will join the Extended Executive Committee. He replaces Jean-Christophe Kiren, who has been appointed Chief Executive Officer of Crédit Agricole Centre France Regional Bank.

Biography

Bertrand Chevallier began his career in 1989 as a financial auditor with Price Waterhouse and then worked as an independent before joining Crédit Agricole d'Ile-de-France Regional Bank in 1992 as head of financial research. He then became Head of Accounting and Management Control before being appointed Deputy Chief Financial Officer. In January 2001, Bertrand was appointed Head of General Control and became Head of the Corporate Market Division in 2003. He joined Crédit Agricole Leasing & Factoring in 2005, where he was successively Deputy Chief Executive Officer in charge of leasing operations and then, as of 2007, Deputy Chief Executive Officer responsible for the leasing business in France, before being appointed Chief Executive Officer in 2011. Since 2012, Bertrand Chevallier has been Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Crédit Agricole d'Ile-de-France Regional Bank.

Aged 48, Bertrand Chevallier is a graduate of the Ecole Centrale de Paris engineering school and the Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris.
